Even when our hearts are heavy, our steps misguided, or our intentions clouded, the light of Christ breaks through. Suddenly, the grace of God surrounds us. We are seen, we are known, and we are called by name. No matter the road we have been walking, no matter how unlikely a servant we may seem, the Lord meets us and redirects our path. Let us bow before the One who transforms our lives, opening our eyes to a new way of living. Come, let us worship the Lord of light and new beginnings! Amen.
